The Commission on Emergency Medical Services (EMS) for the State of California was created in the Health and Welfare Agency effective January 1, 1981. The statutory base for the Commission is found in Chapter 1260, Section 1799 of the Health and Safety Code and its role as an appeal body for local EMS agency systems plans is found in Section 1797.105. The following constitutes the Rules of Procedure of the Commission:

PURPOSE AND REGULAR DUTIES

Section 1799.50 through 1799.56 specifies:

The Commission shall advise the Authority on the development of an emergency medical data collection system.

The Commission shall advise the Director concerning the assessment of emergency facilities and services.

II. Appeal Functions

Section 1797.105 specifies that the EMS Authority shall receive plans for the implementation of EMS from local EMS agencies. and consistent with applicable guidelines and/or regulations established by the authority.

Section 1797.105 (c) and (d) specify that a local EMS agency may appeal a determination of the Authority to the Commission. The Authority will start the appeal process and notify the Commission at the next scheduled meeting, if an appeal is submitted to the Authority before the Commission meeting.

The Commission adopts Chapter 13 of the California Code of Regulations, Title 22, Division 9 for the appeal of the denial of a local EMS agency plan.

If such is the case (i.e., tie-breaking vote), the Commissioner should declare in the minutes a potential conflict of interest and then discharge his duty as a Commissioner in casting a vote.
