

Lay Rescuer Epinephrine Auto-injector Training Program Approval Checklist

All prospective lay rescuer epinephrine auto-injector training programs shall submit a written request for training program approval to the EMS Authority which shall include all of the following:

- A statement verifying that training in the administration of epinephrine shall result in the lay rescuer demonstrating competency in the assessment, management and administration of epinephrine to an individual suspected of having an anaphylactic reaction that includes all of the following topics and skills:
  - Common causative agents,
  - Recognition of symptoms of anaphylaxis,
  - Recognition of signs of anaphylaxis,
  - Acquisition and disposal of epinephrine auto-injectors,
  - Maintenance and quality assessment of epinephrine auto-injectors,
  - Emergency use of an epinephrine auto-injector:
    - Indications,
    - Contraindications,
    - Adverse effects,
    - Administration by auto-injector,
    - Dosing,
    - Drug actions,
    - Proper storage, handling and disposal of used/or expired injectors.
  - Consent law,
  - Good Samaritan Law,
  - Emergency Care Plans,
  - Activation of the EMS system by calling 911,
  - Commonly available models of epinephrine auto-injectors,
  - Record keeping requirement as specified in Section 100045(b),
  - At the completion of training, the student shall successfully complete a competency based written and skills examination, which shall include all the course content.
- An outline of course objectives,
- A final written and skills competency examination,
- The name and qualifications of the program director,
- The training program address and phone number,
- A copy of the training course curriculum including any workbooks, videos, textbooks, or handouts if used in the course,
- A copy of a course completion document to be provided to student who successfully complete training, which shall contain all of the following elements:
  - The name of the training program,
  - The course name,
  - The name of the individual completing the course,
  - The course completion date,
  - A signature line for the class instructor.