Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. Makes Appointment to California Commission on Emergency Medical Services

Governor Edmund G. Brown Jr. made the following appointment on February 10, 2017:

Nancy Gordon, 59, of Scotts Valley, has been appointed to the California Commission on Emergency Medical Services. Gordon has been director at the Santa Cruz County Emergency Services and Santa Cruz County General Services departments since 2008, where she served as a deputy director from 1986 to 2008 and as an administrative analyst from 1984 to 1985. She was an adjunct instructor at the National Fire Academy from 1990 to 1995 and an independent consultant from 1986 to 2005. Gordon was communications director at the Santa Cruz County Emergency Services Department from 1985 to 1986. She earned a Master of Public Administration degree from San Jose State University. This position does not require Senate confirmation and there is no compensation. Gordon is a Democrat.

The Commission on Emergency Medical Services supports the role of EMS agencies to ensure that patients have adequate access to quality emergency medical services, and to ensure the long-term stability of these services. The Commission meets quarterly at locations throughout the state to provide advice to the director of the California Emergency Medical Services Authority and to approve regulations, standards and guidelines developed by EMSA.
